

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at `http://books.google.com/`

THE PHILOMATHEAN SOCIETY.

This Society has existed more than half a century, and during that time nearly fourteen hundred individuals have enjoyed its privileges. There can be no better index of its flourishing condition for this long period, than the fact of its having enrolled so large a number of members. And no more convincing proof of the benefits derived from the Society can be offered, than a reference to the honorable names that appear in the Catalogue. The reputation that it has justly acquired is a sufficient recommendation of its character and usefulness, to those who may wish to participate in the advantages of such an Institution

Philomathean Library and Reading Room.

Connected with the Society is an elegant and well selected Library containing upwards of four thousand volumes of choice and popular works. A great part of this collection was recently presented by the Alumni of the Society and other generous individuals residing in different parts of the country. There is also a Reading Room furnished with the best Periodicals and Reviews.

CONSTITUTION

PHILOMATHEAN SOCIETY

OF UNION COLLEGE.

ARTICLE I.

SECTION 1. This Association shall be known by the name of THE PHILOMATHEAN SOCIETY.

SECTION 2. The objects of this Society shall be the acquirement of literary knowledge, the promotion of virtue, and the cultivation of social harmony and friendship.

SECTION 3. The ordinary business of this Society shall consist of Declamation, Composition and Extemporaneous Debate.

ARTICLE II.

SECTION 1. This Society shall meet weekly during the collegiate term at their Hall or such other place as they shall determine.

SECTION 2. Special meetings shall be called by the President upon a written application of one-fourth of the attending members.

SECTION 3. A majority of the attending members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business ; but a less number shall be empowered to adjourn from time to time and call delinquents to account.

ARTICLE III.

SECTION 1. The Officers of this Society shall be a President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Librarian, Advocate, and a Censor, with three Councilors; the three former to continue in office during six, and the remainder during twelve regular meetings, except the Librarian who shall continue in office one year; all of whom shall be respectively elected according to law.

SECTION 2. It shall be the duty of the PRESIDENT, to preside at all meetings of the Society, to regulate its business, execute its laws, appoint committees, deliver an address at the expiration of his term of office, to call for criticism upon composition, etc., to put to vote all questions submitted to the decision of the Society, and to call special meetings.

SECTION 3. The President shall be empowered, subject to the laws, to impose fines upon any member who shall become obnoxious to the laws of the Society; to grant leave of absence, provided it be not more than ten minutes; to take the voice of the house upon any question he may wish to propose previous to any that may be pending, and without being seconded.

SECTION 4. He shall not vote except on admission or expulsion of members, but shall have the casting vote on any question upon which the Society is equally divided. He shall not be called to account for any misdemeanor committed during his term of office, until the expiration of the same, except for openly and avowedly refusing submission to the Constitution and Laws.

SECTION 5. In the absence or indisposition of the PRESIDENT, the VICE PRESIDENT shall perform his duties and possess his powers.

SECTION 6. It shall be the duty of the SECRETARY to keep regular minutes of the transactions of the Society; preserve all books and papers committed to his charge; call the roll; read the minutes of the last meeting; announce the duties of each division for the succeeding meeting, note down the votes taken, whether by ballot or viva voce, upon all questions submitted for decision; announce the result, and make a just return of all delinquencies to the Censor, at the close of every regular meeting.

SECTION 7. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to notify newly elected attending members of their election, which notice shall be given within six days from such election; to carry notifications to absenting members, when ordered by the Society; deliver to the Treasurer at the close of each meeting, an account of all the fines imposed; give general notice of all special meetings; and when called upon, to write and deliver certificates of Non-Attending and Honorary Members.

SECTION 8. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to keep the funds, collect the dues and make disbursements, under the direction of the Society; to keep an account of all monies received and expended by the same; a book of debt and credit between the Society and its members; to keep the seal; to report to the Society such members as shall neglect or refuse to pay their dues within the time specified by law; and to keep or cause to be kept in a fit condition the Hall of the Society.

SECTION 9. It shall be the duty of the Librarian to keep the keys of the Library; preserve its books, manuscripts and stationery; to be in the Library every Wednesday and Saturday from half past eight until nine o'clock, A. M., and at such other times as the Society may from time to time order, for the purpose of delivering and receiving books; and to keep an account of all books delivered and returned.

SECTION 10. It shall be the duty of the LIBRARIAN, to keep a Catalogue of all the books open to the inspection of the members; to record the names of the benefactors of the Society together with the amount of their donations; to report to the Society all members with-holding a book or books longer than the lawful time or in any way damaging the same, and to hand the amount of the fines to the Treasurer.

SECTION 11. The LIBRARIAN shall be empowered to appoint three assistants removable at pleasure.

SECTION 12. It shall require a majority of all the votes polled to elect a person to either of the offices of President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, or Librarian.

SECTION 13. If on balloting for either of these officers a choice shall not be made, the Society shall proceed to ballot from the three candidates having the greatest number of votes, and if on the second ballot no choice shall be made, they shall choose the officer from the two having the highest number of votes.

SECTION 14. The ADVOCATE shall consider himself bound by honor and morality, to defend when called upon, to the best of his ability, the CONSTITUTION, LAWS, interests and character of the Society.

SECTION 15. It shall be the duty of the Advocate when a member is brought before the Society, for trial, to take upon himself the management of such trial on the part of the Society, to state the charges, examine the witnesses, explain the laws, and elucidate and apply the evidence.

SECTION. 16. It shall be the duty of the CENSOR and COUNCIL, to present two questions for debate at each regular meeting, and in case the Society rejects them, to immediately present two more, and repeat the same as often as the Society rejects; to report to the Treasurer the names of all individuals fined, with the amount of the fines.

SECTION 17. The CENSOR and COUNCIL shall be empowered to cite before them any member who shall be reported to them as having transgressed the Laws, or any member whom they shall have discovered to have transgressed the same; to give private admonition when they shall deem it necessary, to examine into deficiencies, of members, to judge whether the excuses offered, if any, be satisfactory, and subject to the laws, to impose fines.

SECTION 18. If the Censor and Council in the discharge of their duty, find a
